Sleepily tucked away amongst the mountains, above the historic mining town of Pilgrims Rest; lies Mount Sheba, mysterious & elegant. The mornings are different making way for beautiful days filled with fun or leisure activities. Conclude the day with a five-course gourmet dinner, complemented by pure white table linen, with the glistening of silver and glassware, accompanied by meticulous service. Night falls whilst you rekindle your memories in front of a cozy fireplace, in the privacy of your charming en-suite room. The Resort is ideal for conference groups or functions. Fourteen exquisite forest paths reveal the quiet grace of fauna and flora following bubbling crystal-clear water. Old-fashioned hospitality will provide an unforgettable experience to enchant one to visit again.

Location

In close proximity of Pilgrims Rest (23km) & Lydenburg (Mashishini) (54km) - MPUMALANGA

Mount Sheba lies secluded with awesome mountains, above the historic mining town of Pilgrims Rest, set on 400 hectares of a magnificent indigenous tree covered Nature Reserve.

From Gauteng, take the N12 highway towards Witbank. Continue on the N4 past Middelburg until the Belfast turnoff. From Belfast continue through Dullstroom and then to Lydenburg. (Mashishini) Approximately 30km after Lydenburg, (the R36) towards Ohrigstad, turn right on the R533 – Pilgrims Rest turnoff. Drive for approximately 16km until you see the Forever Resort Mount Sheba sign. The first 7 km – gravel road and the last 3 km – tarred. Sharp curves: please drive with caution.
